

MEMORANDUM

TO: LANDLORDS OF SPRINGDALE, ARKANSAS

FROM: JEFF C. HARPER, CITY ATTORNEY

RE: FILING CHARGES FOR FAILURE TO PAY RENT/REFUSAL TO VACATE AFTER 10 DAYS WRITTEN NOTICE

The purpose of this letter is to set out to you the procedure that will be followed when you desire to prosecute tenants for failure to pay rent/refusal to vacate upon written notice. A copy of the law, which is Ark. Code Ann. §18-16-101, is attached. Also is an example notice to vacate showing what goes in each blank, and then a blank notice to vacate. I also recommend you review the information entitled "What You Should Know About Landlord/Tenant Rights" which can be accessed at http://www.ag.arkansas.gov/consumers\_tips\_landlord\_tenant.html.

First of all, remember there are two ways to proceed against a tenant who has failed to pay rent. Through my office you are filing charges as a criminal action, and this will not cost you any money since it is a violation of Arkansas law to hold over after 10 days written notice. You can also file a civil action against the tenant and you will need to contact your private attorney to file this action. I am primarily setting out the criminal procedure in this letter, but you can proceed criminally, civilly or with both type actions.

What you are filing through my office is a violation of Arkansas law. For me to prosecute this violation, you will need to make sure that the tenant has failed to pay rent under the agreement that you had with them (either oral or written agreement) and that you have given them 10 days written notice to vacate the premises for failure to pay rent. After 10 days passes from the day notice is first served on the tenant, come by my office to file charges and bring a copy of the notice that was served.

Previously, if a defendant was convicted of violating this law, they could only be fined $25 for each day that they failed to vacate the premises. However, the 2001 General Assembly of the Arkansas Legislature added a new provision that if the tenant pleads not guilty to the charge of refusal to vacate, but continues to reside on the premises, the tenant shall be required to deposit with the court an amount equal to the rent due on the premises. If the tenant is subsequently found guilty of failure to vacate, failure of the tenant to pay this amount to the court shall result in the charge being a Class B misdemeanor, which means the tenant can be punished by up to a $500 fine, and 90 days in jail. If the tenant has paid the amount and is found guilty, then this money goes to the landlord, and if found not guilty, the money is returned to the tenant.

This law provides that each day the tenant holds over, after the 10 days written notice is served upon them, is a separate offense. Our Municipal Judge has ruled that the 10 day notice has to be on the written document that you serve on the person if we are to get a conviction on criminal charges. I have prepared a form to specifically comply with the criminal charge and you are welcome to have a copy of the form. You can have notice to vacate served on the tenant in one of three ways:

1. You can serve the paper yourself by delivering a copy to the tenant (if there is more than one tenant that you want to have served, you will need to provide a copy to each tenant you serve);
2. You can have a Sheriff's deputy or process server, serve the notice for you (they usually charge $50 for this service and I will be happy to tell you how you can make contact with them);
3. You can serve the tenant by certified mail, (restricted delivery to the party you are serving).

If you serve the tenant yourself, it is a good idea to get a witness to go with you so the tenant will not come to court and deny that they ever got the notice. A witness can be anyone, (preferably at least 18 years of age) friend or relative. However, I will not require you to have a witness before you file charges.

If you desire to file a civil action against the tenant also, please contact your own attorney and they can explain the procedure to you. I understand the problem you are dealing with, because even though the tenant stays at your property and does not pay rent, you still have to make mortgage payments on the property. I will help you to the fullest legal extent that I can, and will be glad to answer further questions that you may have. Hopefully, we can solve this problem as quick as possible without further inconvenience to you.
